PLANT a ZINNIA GARDEN to a PLAN

This is a special offer; cannot be substituted or altered.

It's Easy!

Simply follow the plan shown at bottom of page.

We have tried and tested this plan in our own trial grounds. Results and blends of color are marvelous.

If you are a Zinnia enthusiast, try it. If you are not one already, try the plan, and you will find yourself an enthusiast!

Size of plot is 20x30 feet. The number before each color of flower denotes the amount of plants required for that plot. The plots can be easily marked out by string or stakes. Scale of 1/8 inch equals 1 foot will make the plan a couple of feet larger, but will work out nicely.

All the types of Zinnias, giant, medium and lilliput, are found in this group, including the novelties "Tidy-tipped Picotee", "Fantasy", and "Black Knight."

This is a regular value of $2.35; entire collection is offered at.....$1.50

When ordering ask for Collection No. 191.

Plant Zinnias in flats in March and April, in the open in May, June and July.

The collection consists of one packet of each of the following Zinnias:

FACTS ABOUT ZINNIAS

Zinnias are gross feeders and should not be planted year after year in the same plot without adding some good fertilizer such as well rotted manure.

To produce maximum size blooms, zinnias must receive an abundance of water either in the form of rainfall or irrigation.

In dry climates, or if it fails to rain, they should be irrigated thoroughly once every week or two, depending on how fast the evaporation of the moisture from the soil has been. Don't sprinkle—this produces too many tiny surface feeding roots that have neither the feeding capacity nor depth to supply sufficient moisture to the growing plant when hot weather comes on. Cultivate around the plant while young and when you water, soak ground thoroughly.

You can make successive plantings of zinnia seed in the open ground from May 1st to at least July 15 and in California and mild climates you can extend the season well into August. During warm weather they will come into bloom easily in sixty days from seed.

If you want to grow exhibition flowers, space your plants 2 to 3 ft. apart each way and if the soil is impoverished use well rotted manure and work into the ground around the plants, but keep it about six inches away from the main stocks so roots will not be burned.

Wide spacing is also your best preventative for mildew because it allows a free circulation of air around the plant.

If you wish to plant solid beds or borders in separate colors to carry out a color scheme in the garden you should set out or thin out your plants to about 8 or 10 inches apart, then when they come into bloom you can take out any of the plants that happen to be off-color without leaving too much space between those remaining. After this roguing process thin out all plants to stand 18 to 24 inches apart. In no other way can you have perfect beds of separate shades. The zinnia cannot be fixed to produce 100% true to color and we are sure that no grower has done more than we have to bring this popular flower to its present state of perfection.

Don't pick the flowers too soon for house decoration if you want size and gorgeous coloring. Let them develop. It takes fully two weeks for opened buds to grow into full-sized double flowers. Many people think that the zinnia is a complete flower when the first circle of petals flattens out. Give it time, each day this flower grows increasingly larger and is still in the process of growing when it has reached huge proportions and the first set of petals are actually so old that they have started to turn brown.

Like all hollow-stemmed flowers, the zinnia keeps better as a cut flower if the ends of the stems are submerged in boiling water for 15 seconds.

Don't rush the season. Don't plant when the ground is wet and cold, the seed will only rot. The zinnia is a hot weather flower, coming into its full beauty in late summer and early fall.

D. G. FRASER'S GIANT MISSION ZINNIAS

(Giant Balloon Flowered Type) Double, robusta grandiflora

D. G. FRASER'S GIANT MISSION ZINNIAS

(Giant Balloon Flowered Type)

This group is the result of years of plant selection to develop a perfect zinnia; and we do not hesitate to recommend it as the most perfect of all large flowered types. The flowers average somewhat smaller than those of the California Giants; however, this difference is very slight and in some colors the sizes will run identical in both types. As the name implies the Balloon Flowered Type is more rounding than the Mammoth and the petals are more closely set, over-lapping as do camellia petals, very compact and symmetrical in perfect blossoms. The color range is greater than in the Mammoth type, and they have been developed to a high stage of doubleness; all of which tends to make them America's most perfect large flowered zinnias.

Mission zinnias fit admirably into the planting about the Spanish or stucco dwelling, bringing with them a bit of dashing color from old Mexico.

177 Mission Lavender Princess. A large flower of beautiful lavender shades from silvery lilac to deep orchid.

178 Autumn Glory. The large flowers of buff shades become beautifully tinted with bronze, rosy-lavender shades and soft autumn colors as they age.

179 Mission Butter-cup Yellow. A large flower of unusually fine form in soft, creamy-yellow shades, slightly lower in growth than other Balloon types making it desirable for foreground planting.

181 Crimson-Scarlet Beauties. A perfect range of red shades so near alike that you can hardly select one from another.

182 Mission Salmon Queen. Beautiful salmon-rose shades, fully rounded two-toned flowers. Colors are bright and lively, delicately tinged with light pinks.

183 Poppy Gald. A recent introduction. Rich shades of golden and chrome yellows between our Burnt Orange and Daffodil in depth and color value. A color comparable to our own California Poppy.

160 Mission Majestic Rose. One of the most outstanding of all separate colors. A real beauty. Rich warm carmine-rose shades, different than other rose shades. This one made a "big hit" with all visitors at the ranch.

161 Mission White Snowball. It is quite evident that few people realize the beauty of the white zinnia.

170 Mission Burnt Orange. A striking flower, richly colored in gorgeous orange shades, and deeper orange centers.

162 Mission Pink Shades. Flowers develop a pleasing variety of two-toned effects as they age, outer edge of petals on many deepening to rose, while some are suffused with salmon. Fine for cut flower.

164 Mission Radiant Rose. Flowers are large, borne on long stems in pretty shades of deep rose, radiant soft and pleasing. Older flowers take on two-toned effects with deep rose centers and lighter outer petals.

166 Mission Golden Trophy. A magnificent, perfectly shaped flower of clear yellow shades.

172 Mission Purple Profusion. The most perfect formed flowers of the Balloon Types are to be found in these deep, rich purple shades.

ZINNIAS

By EDGAR A. GUEST

Old-fashioned Zinnias seem to me
Like certain patient friends and true,

Who seek no wards of flattery
Nor any praise for what they do,
But are the first when sorrows fall
With offerings of help to call.

Some friendships and some flowers appear

Too pale and delicate to last.
Who loves them dwells in constant fear
Of thoughtless word or icy blast.
The last contrary wind may end
The fragile bloom or fragile friend.

But Zinnias have a sturdier way,
No pampering from friends they ask.
Whenever planted they will stay
And blithely go about their task.
Whatever winds or storms descend
On Zinnias you can depend.

SEPARATE COLORS OF CALIFORNIA GIANT ZINNIAS

(Does Not Require Staking)

In the background of the Zinnia border these majestic queens stand in proud array, as though watching over the smaller types and lending a royal dignity to the garden.

This variety is one of the largest of zinnias. The flowers are very double, large petaled, somewhat flat in form and of enormous size. The average flower is from 5 to 6 inches across, with many growing to 7 under proper cultivation, plenty of water and occasional applications of fertilizer. These enormous, double flowers were obtained after many years of careful selection and rigid roguing in our growing fields to eliminate singles and small sized flowers. Those of different colors vary somewhat in size. Because flowers are always more alluring when grown in separate colors, we have obtained by continued selection a wide range of shades which in most cases come true to color and type. Wherever large quantities of single shades are desired, or wherever any given color scheme is to be carried out in the planning, named varieties should be selected.

210 Mammoth Orange King. A large well formed flower of gorgeous golden yellow and orange shades, many beautiful two-toned and reflexed types. A vigorous grower with long strong stems.

211 Mammoth Scarlet Gem. A wonder in size and depth of color. Sensational color, bright scarlet and fine dark green foliage.

212 Mammoth Vermilion Queen. A vivid, brilliant vermilion verging to rose, makes a striking bouquet.

214 Mammoth Daffodil. Brilliant canary yellow shades and exceptionally good keepers when cut. Introduced in 1932, this number proved very true last year, but will be better in every way when grown from our stock of new seed.

215 Mammoth Rose Queen. An immense flower of bright rose shades with deeper rose center. Reflexed type, with foliage extending well up to the flower which is carried on long stems.

216 Mammoth Pink Perfection. Bright lively pink shades, delicate yet stronger coloring than Mammoth Pink Profusion. Extra fine, strong stems and luxuriant foliage.

217 Mammoth Pink Profusion. Glorious shades of light, delicate pinks, some deepening as the flowers age. Some have a delicate salmon flush, while others are light flesh pinks. A tall strong plant with long stems, fine for cutting.

219 Mammoth Enchantress. Beautiful rose shades with deeper rose centers; distinctly a two-toned flower, very pleasing and one of the largest blooms of the California Giant Zinnias. If you like rose colors you'll like this one.

222 Mammoth Lemon Queen. Petals loosely arranged (similar to Scarlet Gem). A magnificent bloom of lemon-yellow.

224 Mammoth Purple. Violet-purple shades, huge flowers with petals somewhat loosely arranged. Extra good stems for cutting and a strong grower.

MIXED COLORS

223 Mammoth Giant Wander Mixture. Including all the California Giant Zinnia shades in one packet. Produces a gorgeous array of color and huge flowers and is especially good for the small gardens where room is limited and a variety of color is wanted.

SPECIAL COLOR MIXTURES

This mixture will give you the greatest variety of all mixtures in color and form. Plants will not vary over about a foot in height. Many interesting forms and beautiful colors for cut flowers. LILLIPUT ZINNIAS

Also Called Baby or Cupid Pompon Zinnias

Wee little blossoms with faces so bright,
Sent down from Heaven, our hearts to delight.

Baby faces and baby flowers win our hearts at every turn. These petite little Zinnia charmers have quite won their way into the affections of American gardeners. They are fascinating little beauties and perfect replicas in miniature of the most beautiful double giant zinnias grown, in form and color. Among the Lilliputs are our smallest members of the zinnia family, growing from 12 to 20 inches tall, with dainty flowers most excellent for cutting. They are most lovely planted fairly close together in beds or borders. If planted in rich or well-fertilized soil the stems will grow much longer.

MINIATURE MISSION ZINNIAS

CUT-AND-COME-AGAIN ZINNIAS

(Elegans Pumila Flore Pleno)

This variety has been termed "the florist's flower," being the most popular of all Zinnias among the cut-flower trade. Housewives will enjoy it equally as well for home decorations. Regardless of other flowers planted in the garden, a bed should be set aside for the growing of Miniature Mission Zinnias purely for cut purposes. The variety is most uniform in size of flower and plant. The blossoms measure about 2 inches across, have long stems and are most graceful in vases or the garden. They all come about 100% double and are unusually prolific bloomers, the plants becoming literally covered with flowers during the blooming season. Regardless of how fast you cut them, there always seem to be more. Try a few of the separate shades as well as the mixed colors.

Offered in six gorgeous shades and mixed colors.

- 23 White. Pure white.
- 24 Golden Yellow.
- 25 Golden Orange.
- 26 Crimson-Scarlet.

Sweet Peas

A SELECTION OF THE BEST FROM
Fraser's Summer Flowering Sweet Peas
PLANT DURING EARLY SPRING FOR SUMMER FLOWERS

Summer flowering varieties are the most vigorous and prolific bloomers of all sweet peas. This is the variety to plant during the early spring months in eastern states or other locations having cold climates. They are also successfully grown in California along the coast and can be planted from January to March. The early or winter flowering varieties are planted in California and Southern States during late summer and fall for winter and early spring flowers, also extensively grown under glass in cold climates for winter flowers by both the amateur and commercial grower.

Selections offered here represent the best in their respective colors. We are in the sweet pea seed growing center of the world and are in a position to see them all in flower, so you may be sure that when better sorts are available we will list them.

SWAN RIVER DAISY

CALIFORNIA WILD FLOWER SEEDS

The early Californians had naught but wildflowers to plant about their doorsteps; but they were so delighted with these that they gathered seeds and sent them to the dear ones at home. Today California wildflowers are grown throughout the civilized world. If you have never planted them, then there is a real treat in store for you. Few wild flowers rival their beauty in the native and when brought under cultivation they are larger and more attractive. They bring romance, beauty and novelty into the garden, requiring a minimum of water and care. Plant them in vacant lots and parkways and thus grow blossoms instead of weeds. In the Southwest they should be planted in the fall or during the rainy season. Sowings made after the rainy season is past will have a shorter blooming period, slower germination and will require artificial watering. In the East and North they may be planted either in the fall or early spring.

California Sun Ripened wildflower seeds should always be planted in the natural or "wild" garden if nature is to be imitated.

A Very Popular Universal Garden Flower

CALENDULA . . . Scotch Marigold

Balls of Gold for the Universe

Hardy Annual—18 in.

What could be more romantic than a pocketfull of gold with a lassie by our side? Or a garden dipped in gold on a moonlight night? You may have the latter for only a few cents if you will plant it to the popular garden flower—Calendula or Scotch Marigolds. This year you will be especially pleased with our two new varieties: Radio Golden Beam and Chrysantha, both fine additions to an already popular family. Calendulas have been termed "the flower that never fails." They will thrive in almost any soil with a minimum of care. Be sure to buy Sun Ripened Seed from the finest of improved strains.

In mild sections it is simplest to sow calendula seeds where the plants are to grow, two or three seeds together, spaced at intervals of 12 inches. After they have germinated and thrown out their first pair of leaves, select the thriftiest one and pull out the others, leaving one plant to mature in each planting. In mild climates they may be planted in fall for winter blooming. In colder sections they may be planted inside or in hot beds in March or April and transplanted to the garden in May. Seeds may be sown in the open ground after all danger of frost is past.

Colorful and Delightfully Different

CALIFORNIA POPPIES IN SUNSET RAINBOW SHADES

Eschscholtzia—California Poppies

When the Podres come into California they found dainty cups of gold growing over the mountainsides and through the valleys. The common wild variety is a native of several western states and the State flower of California. But the new California poppies are much improved, in that we now have a remarkable color range with longer and better flowers. Our sun ripened seed represent this vastly improved strain. California Poppies are easily grown and practically free from garden pests. They are perfectly hardy in the eastern states; we have known them to self-seed for five years or for north as Massachusetts. Few people know the trick of keeping them as cut flowers; merely cut the flowers or large buds in the early morning before they open.

CLIMBING and TRAILING PLANTS

No garden is complete without a few of the popular climbing and trailing plants. We have listed here the most pleasing sorts from among your favorites.

New and Rare Ornamental Gourds, in Mixtures and Separate Varieties.

Gourds grow in most every section of the world, and we have gone to great expense to give our customers very selected and new varieties. Gourds will grow in any type of soil. We recommend growing in the poorer soils because they do not go so much to vine and more to the fruit. They may be trained on trellises as ornamentals or used as ground covers. The fruit should be allowed to become ripe and hard before picking. After picking, scrub thoroughly clean and cover with varnish. It is becoming a great hobby all over the world to decorate by hand the hard shelled types.

YOU CAN GROW SUPERIOR DAHLIAS FROM SEED

Selected Lists of the Finest Types—Planting Seed to Blooming 120 Days

YOU CAN GROW YOUR OWN PRIZE-WINNING DAHLIA and name it yourself if you plant . . .

FRASER'S Sunripened DAHLIA SEED

Here's easy directions for planting culture

New dahlias always come from seed, never from tubers. Hence, you will want to plant at least one packet of Fraser's selected dahlia seeds. Throughout America gardeners have found that the growing of dahlias from seed is one of the most fascinating of hobbies. Indeed, there are endless possibilities packed inside every little seed. When you sow seeds from a plant that has borne yellow blooms you will probably have flowers that are every other shade except yellow. The one thing that is certain is that the dahlia will retain quality in its progeny. It is therefore, important to plant only selected seed. Our strains are derived from prize-winning parents and, in turn, these seeds will produce flowers of extraordinary colors and size that will capture high honors in the showroom. A dollar or two spent for seed each year will give you a stock of prize-winning dahlias of your own introduction at far less cost than buying tubers.

In planting dahlia seed, sow them in pans or flats, using a light soil with plenty of sand. Plant the seeds about one-quarter of an inch deep. Some will germinate in a week or 10 days, if the soil has been kept moderately moist. These should be pricked out and transplanted as soon as possible, as some will be slow in germinating, possibly requiring 3 weeks. Plant them in the open ground when a few inches high, setting them about 18 inches apart. Shade them for a few days until they harden off.

The universal practice is to raise Dahlias from seed. Their culture is very simple. Treat similar to any half-hardy annual such as Marigolds and Zinnias. Plant seed indoors in February-March, and potting up the seedlings strong plants will be obtained for planting outside. In the open ground in June and July in Southern States.

Some of them measure 10 to 12 inches in diameter. Therefore they are entirely distinct from any varieties we have offered heretofore. Hence the name "Discovery." The new prices may seem rather high but the quality is unsurpassed. As this valuable seed is liable to be crushed in the mail we pack them in cotton. $3.00 for 50 seeds; $5.00 for 100 seeds.

NASTURTIUMS—A Flower from Mother's Garden

How often we have wandered in fancy through Mother's garden of our childhood, and seen the flowers there! Today nasturtiums are more popular than ever before. Not only are the old favorites being planted, but we have such a variety of improved strains with truly gorgeous blooms. For easy culture and brilliant colors they are unsurpassed. Flower arrangement experts tell us to use them as cut flowers in low bowls, gourd vases and hanging baskets. Sow the seed in April or May—as soon as the ground is warm. Planted on the sunny side of a hill they make a delightful ground cover where few flowers can be grown. In California seed may be sown in June for fall blooming. As the seeds are large, soak them in lukewarm water for a couple of hours, then drop in holes 8 inches apart, two seeds to a hole. This saves thinning later.

CALIFORNIA GIANT PETUNIAS . . .

In Southern California whole cities have taken to planting their parkways to petunias. Such plantings of a given sort lend atmosphere and individuality to any community. Has YOUR community a personality? If not, advocate the planting of such a flower as the petunia and note the miracle of beauty you bring about.

These magnificent petunias with their huge blossoms are gorgeous; velvety, exotic creations of appealing charm and spicy fragrance. These deep throated beauties with their ruffled petals and fringed edges, in both the single and double forms, often measure 5 inches across and are worth the bit of care it takes to grow them.

The seed of these varieties is very small and quite expensive so should be sown in seed pans or flats and later transplanted to the garden.

PANSIES.. VIOLAS

Most romantic in all flowerland is the Pansy. Lovers have pressed the blossoms and enclosed them in missives of love for centuries. The very name means "thoughts." Early English literature is full of references to them, both in poetry and prose. Children are particularly attracted by their smiling faces and love to have them in gardens of their own. Remember, there are two distinct types: ordinary and "Giant" or those of improved types. In accordance to type is the price of seeds; and in accordance to price we get the blossoms.

It is much more interesting, satisfactory and inexpensive to grow your own pansies from seed. By so doing you may select your own types and take advantage of some of the finest varieties the plants of which are not offered for sale. Plant seed early in the spring.

GOLD VEINED SALPIGLOSSIS

Salpiglossis were judged the most popular flower in the Horticultural Gardens of the Century of Progress, Chicago, 1934.

A half-hardy annual, the flowers being trumpet-shaped with wide, flaring petals, velvety in texture, rich in color and beautifully veined in gold. The plants are of a rather loose habit, growing to two feet or more in height, and should not be planted less than a foot apart. Sow them in a well prepared bed of light, sandy soil. Transplanting is not always satisfactory and if possible we recommend sowing where plant is to stand. One of the easiest of all annuals to grow if sown on the surface of well prepared ground and pressed in.

VEGETABLE SPECIALTIES

VT829 TOMATO, New. Fraser's Red Heart.

Fruits uniformly deep scarlet and globe shaped, medium large, smooth, solid and of distinct quality. Pkt. 15c.

STOCKS...Gilli Flower

"THE WORLD'S BEST DOUBLE STOCK"

ALL OUR CALIFORNIA GROWN STOCKS BLOOM AT LEAST TWO WEEKS EARLIER THAN SEED GROWN IN ANY OTHER SECTION OF THE WORLD.

If you were to have but one flower in your garden we would recommend stocks, for it seems to be well nigh indispensable. They have the color, beauty of individual flower, as well as the flower stalk as a whole, besides a wonderful fragrance that few other flowers can equal. Our strain of Sun Ripened Seeds will give you enormous pyramids of double blossoms so thickly set that they over-lap, and they will produce a very high percentage of double flowers.

To have a bed of all double stocks we suggest that you sow the seed thickly in open ground, if plants are started in the cold frame, set out young seedlings very close together, then thin out all the singles when plants flower, leaving only the doubles. You will have a gorgeous bed of double stocks.

URSINIA

Hardy Annual—12 in.

The plant grows about 12 inches high and is very easy to start from seed sown inside during early spring or outside when the ground is warm. Blooms July till frost. Pkt. 25c.

Vegetable Gardening Combined with Flower Gardening . . . Why Not?

Every home should cope with the situation of going back to the farm. YOU do your little part, and it will give you a world of pleasure, and tender, sweet vegetables. All our seeds are grown by the most competent growers and the strains are without exception of the highest perfection. Our 10c packets contain more than twice the amount of quality seed as any other packets offered at this price.

One seldom realizes the great amount of good, wholesome vegetable food that may be produced from a few short rows of vegetables combined with the flower garden. The foliage on all the vegetables is pleasing to the eye, and does not take away from the effect of the garden at all; moreover it adds to its beauty. In order to have them at their best, seeds of many vegetables should be sown at frequent intervals through the Spring and Summer season. Beets, carrots, onions, spinach, lettuce, cabbage, cauliflower, golden celery, garden peas, and radishes are not easily affected by frost.

FLOWERING KALE

Improved INDIAN MOON

Illustrated Below

2714 Fraser's New Double Indian Moon Sunflower. For several years we have been selecting to get an absolutely pure Sunflower with perfect characteristics. We have succeeded in the past year. We made two plantings on two different boulevards, one of the selections showed a great variation in size and color. The other was absolutely 100% true in doubleness. The Indian Moon made a very wonderful impression on sight-seers, many of whom stopped and were amazed to find that it was the new Sunflower. The Sunflower does not grow over 4 ft. high and is a true tree type. The laterals thrown out from the side produce about 25 to 50 flowers measuring from 4 to 8 inches across. If you are desirous of producing larger flowers, disbud as you would Chrysanthemums. Because of its extreme doubleness it is a very shy seeder and we quote the price of 12 seeds for 25c. This is sold in retail packets only.

Illustrated at Left

Although belonging to the same family of Cabbage or Kale, this Flowering Kale is an entirely different sort of plant as to its appearance. In young stage its leaves are green just like ordinary Kale, but in autumn as the weather advances remarkably beautiful colors begin to appear and paint the whole plant in self colors and in variegation.

The colors range from white, cream, pink, rose, magenta, etc., on dark green ground.

As the plants grow, the colors become more brilliant and keep well into winter until late spring.

Sakata's strain is better in color, more compact in habit, which makes it more suitable for pot plant than the old loose and tall growing Coleus Leaved or Variegated Leaved Kale.

Considering its conspicuous color and its marvellous keeping quality, this Flowering Kale should gain great popularity as pot plants for Christmas or New Year decoration or as bedding out plants for winter and spring borders. Also fine for garnishing salads and meats.

1501 FLOWERING KALE. Mixed colors. Pkt. 25c.

CHRYSANTHEMUM JAPONICA

CHRYSANTHEMUM

Illustrated Above

2372 Chrysanthemum Japonicum "Japanese Cascade." Single-flowering, fine mixed colors. This beautiful Chrysanthemum has many great merits over other varieties of Chrysanthemums. It is hardy, easy of culture and comes to flower the same autumn from seed.

Naturally Japanese Mountain Chrysanthemum will grow to a wild bush if left by itself, but if pinched two or three times, a good shaped bush can be obtained. By proper pinching and staking you can grow them to be most showy and artistic style of hanging or spray pot plants. If properly cultivated, they will hang down as long as 4 to 6 feet with 2 ft. width, that may be termed as "Cascade" or "Drooping" type and will make a most fascinating decoration in the corner of the parlor or the dining room. Pkt. 50c.

2373 Chrysanthemum Japonicum "Japanese Mountain." Double-Anemone-flowered, very fine mixed colors. Pkt. 75c.

BEGONIAS, Tuberous-Rooted

We offer an especially fine strain of truly giant-flowering varieties. They succeed best in rather moist soil and in a shady situation. Excellent for bedding out under trees; they will brighten many a shady spot where no other flowers will succeed. To have them in bloom in May, start the tubers in the hotbed or cold-frame in February or March in pots or boxes. A light peaty soil is most suitable, and until roots have formed, water sparingly. The temperature of the frames should be at least 60 to 70 degrees. The plants can be bedded out as soon as all danger of frost is past (about May 25 to June 1), at which time they will be in bud or blooming; set from 10 to 12 inches apart. The tubers may also be planted in the ground the middle of May or even later, for blooms during August and until frost.
